

Dear Colleague

Thank you for your interest in the position of Teacher of Science (Chemistry or Physics specialism preferred). We are looking to appoint an enthusiastic, dynamic, committed professional as a Science Teacher who can support our drive to continue to raising achievement and standards. This is an exciting time in education and we are a school that embraces change and supports members of staff, parents and pupils with the challenges we all face.

We are proud of our comprehensive school principles and our daily work is centred on four key values; summarised as together we can make a difference; resilient to change; ambitious to excel and caring for the lives of individuals. We are a school with great aspirations; proud of our history and heritage, yet always looking to the future – celebrating pupil well-being, high academic standards and achievement for all. Success at school is the result of pupils, parents/carers and teachers working together. Ofsted reported in February 2016:

“The school’s work to promote pupils’ personal development and welfare is outstanding.” “Relationships between teachers and pupils are excellent. Pupils enjoy learning, settle quickly and apply themselves diligently.....” “The culture and climate within the school is positive...” “Good progress across a broad range of subjects means the proportion of pupils gaining the English Baccalaureate is significantly above average. Consequently, pupils are well prepared for the next stage of their education.”

Visitors regularly comment upon the warm and friendly atmosphere created by the positive relationship between members of staff and pupils. We are a school that cares for members of staff and pupils; we provide support and challenge to ensure we continue to achieve. I encourage you to visit our website to gain an insight into our school; in particular I would direct you to:

I look forward to receiving your application.

Yours sincerely
