Air Quality & The Branch

You may have noticed that The Branch pub has been purchased. The plan is to demolish the pub, to widen the road. We have been involved in measuring air quality at this junction and it is well over the legal limit for NoX particles which are extremely harmful to human health (especially young lungs such as the kids walking to Shipley C of E).

The standing traffic on the main roads by our streets is a real problem but academic research shows that widening the roads and junctions usually makes problems worse and could make life more difficult for residents and the kids who do walk to school. You can leave comments on the Council website. If you have thoughts about this or want to discuss what's going on – get in touch, comment on our Facebook group or attend our event on the 28th of April at St Peter's Church where more detailed information will be available.
