Q) What years were you at Titus Salt?

2005-2012.

Q) What A Levels did you do?

English Literature and Language, Resistant Materials and Geography.

Q) What are you doing now?

I've just graduated, after four years, with a firstclass Honours degree in Design for Industry from Northumbria University. I'm moving to Berkshire soon to start a placement with Waitrose's graphic/innovation design team, which I won through the Royal Society of Arts.

Q) Did you have a favourite teacher? If so who, and why?

I wouldn't be where I am now without the support, encouragement, flexibility and patience that both Mr Collis and Mr Green gave me.

Q) Where do you see yourself in five years' time?

I want to use design as a tool for positive change, whether it's in a consultancy or my own company.
