

Sixth Form Open Evening – Make it a Success

Consider these questions to ensure you come away with an accurate idea of what to expect and what we offer.

What subjects do I love?

What career(s) interest me? (Don't worry if you don't know yet)

How many subjects will I study?

Should I take A Levels, BTEC or a mixture?

Should I pick something I've never studied before?

What are the subject entry qualifications?

What if I don't get the GCSE grades?

Does the subject lead to a specific career pathway?

Do universities prefer certain subjects?

How many lessons are there per subject each week?

How much study time will I get?

How much time should I spend studying outside school?

What size are classes generally?

Where can I study when I'm not in lessons?

What support will I get from staff?

What are the school's expectations of me?

What's the dress code?

How are sixth formers treated differently to main school students?

What does school offer to help me stand out from the crowd?

How much help is given with apprenticeship and UCAS applications?

Who can I talk to about life after sixth form?

Top Tips!

Listen to the presentation in the hall.

Don't be shy to ask questions as you visit subject areas - there's no such thing as a stupid question.
