

KS5 Curriculum Mapping

German
		Term1		Term2		Term3
		Term 1.1	Term 1.2	Term 2.1	Term 2.2	Term 3.1	Term 3.2
12 and 13	Concept/ Theme	Through the themes of family and the digital world, you will gain an insight into German speaking culture and ideas and look at changing roles in these key areas.		Through the themes of youth culture and artistic culture, you will gain an insight into German speaking culture and ideas and look at changing roles in these key areas.		Through the themes of Art, architecture and the Berlin culture scene, you will gain an insight into German speaking culture and ideas and look at changing roles in these key areas.
	Knowledge	Grammar covered in this unit includes using the present tense and modal verbs, the perfect tense and understanding correct word formation and order within a sentence, prepositions and the cases and the future tense. Key skills include reading a literary extract, discussing advantages and disadvantages, understanding compound words, interpreting statistics and making predictions		Grammar covered in this unit includes using pronouns, cases with verbs, the imperative, the passive voice, separable and inseparable and reflexive verbs. Key skills include responding to a poem, expressing opinions, using connectives, translating into German and answering questions in German and summarising a reading passage		Grammar covered in this unit includes word order in subordinate clauses, using the comparative and the superlative and the pluperfect tense, adjective endings, infinitive constructions and the use of the imperfect subjunctive in conditional clauses. Key skills include giving a presentation, expressing reactions, speaking persuasively, listening for detail and translation,
		Film study: Das Leben der Anderen
12 and 13 13	Concept/ Theme	Through the theme of Multiculturalism in German-speaking society, you will gain an insight into German speaking culture and ideas and look at changing roles in these key areas.		Through the themes of Multiculturalism in German-speaking countries and Aspects of political life in the German-speaking world, you will gain an insight into German speaking culture and ideas and look at changing roles in these key areas.		Through the theme of Aspects of political life in the German-speaking world, you will gain an insight into German speaking culture and ideas and look at changing roles in these key areas.
	Knowledge	Grammar covered in this unit includes the use of weak masculine nouns, complex adjectival phrases, adjective endings, possessive and interrogative adjectives, subjunctive in indirect speech and word order. Key skills include using a dictionary, talking about data, reading for gist in complex passages, planning a discussion, talking about priorities, pronunciation		Grammar covered in this unit includes relative and interrogative pronouns, revision of the past and future tenses, subjunctive in indirect speech, use of the perfect, imperfect and pluperfect tenses, prepositions with the dative, future perfect tense. Key skills include using a variety of negative expressions, translating the English gerund into German, expressing obligation, varying vocabulary by using synonyms, expressing doubt and uncertainty, expanding a discussion		Grammar covered in this unit includes, use of the passive voice, use of modal particles, using correct word order for emphasis, using the pluperfect subjunctive in conditional sentences, use of the cases and conditional sentences with the imperfect and pluperfect subjunctive. Key skills include expressing tactful criticism, expressing approval and disapproval, using language to promote a cause, recognising and using the subjunctive forms, using language to describe a change and planning an essay

		Literature study: Der Vorleser by Bernhard Schlink
Extra curricular		Speaking practice for German Y13 Wednesday lunchtime with WLS Y12 Tuesday after school with WNE		